BEARDSLEY LIBRARY.

Mrs. Delia R. Beardsley, in memory of her late husband, Dea. Elliot Beardsley, and in pursuance of a long-cherished desire to benefit the inhabitants of the Borough in which she resides, by some gift of permanent value, has made a donation of $10,000 to establish a Public Library in the village of West Winsted, Conn. In 1874 this amount was entrusted to a Board of seven men, on the following conditions:

1. Five thousand dollars to be expended within the current year for books and periodicals.

2. Five thousand dollars to be invested, and the income derived therefrom to be annually devoted to replenishing the Library.

Mrs. Beardsley also gives the use of a furnished room, free of rent, for a series of years.

The Board to whom the matter was entrusted have fulfilled the first condition, and placed upon the shelves upwards of three thousand volumes.

The Library was opened to the public on Tuesday, Sept. 15th, 1874, subject to the rules and regulations which follow.

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE BEARDSLEY LIBRARY.

Any person shall be entitled to the privileges of the Library and Reading Room for one year by the payment of two dollars in advance and subscribing to the regulations; but the Librarian may require a voucher signed by some responsible person

All persons drawing books shall be strictly responsible for them, and shall be held liable for any defacement or injury to the same while charged to their names, according to the Statute of 1872, Chap. 30 (which imposes a fine of from $5 to $500 for each offense).

The books are divided into three classes: 1. Books that may be retained one week. 2. Books that may be retained two weeks. 3. Books of reference, which shall not be removed from the room.

Any person who shall retain a book beyond the specified time, shall pay a fine of three cents a day until the book is returned; or, if lost, a new one shall be provided in its place. These fines will be collected before another book is let to the delinquent subscriber.

A single ticket shall entitle the holder to draw one volume at a time. A family ticket may be purchased for five dollars, which may draw three volumes at a time, and entitle all members of the family to use of Reading Room A book of the first class cannot be immediately renewed by the same person, if it has been applied for by another.

Application for a book may be made in writing and deposited with the Librarian, in which case applicants shall be served in the order in which they apply. If not called for within twenty-four hours, it may be let to the next applicant.

Magazines and Reviews shall not be taken from the room until bound, after which they may be drawn as other volumes.

No books shall be taken from the shelves except by the Librarian, who will wait upon all who are entitled to the use of the Library. Books may be taken for consultation in the room by regular subscribers, without being charged upon the record.

No loud talking or reading shall be permitted in the Library, nor any conduct which would disturb persons desiring to read

The Library shall be open on such afternoons and evenings and at such hours as the Trustees may direct; and notice of the same shall be conspicuously posted.*

Transient persons shall be entitled to the privileges of the Library for a period not to exceed four months, by the payment of one dollar.

The Librarian is authorized and instructed to enforce these rules, which may be altered or amended at the direction of the Board of Trust.

Life Membership.—Any person shall be entitled to the use of the Library for life, by the payment of fifty dollars.

Honorary Membership.—A donation of one hundred dollars shall constitute any person an honorary member, with all the privileges of membership.

* Library open every afternoon and evening (except Sunday) from 1 to 5, and from 6½ to 9 o'clock.
